Incident Summary: On October 29, 2021, at approximately 11:15 AM, the suspect entered the Dollar General and approached the counter. The suspect had his hand in his hoodie pocket implying a weapon and commented, "We got to do this again!" The clerk immediately recognized the suspect as the same person that robbed the business on October 6, 2021. The manager was called to the register and also recognized the suspect from the previous robbery. The manager complied and placed the register drawer on the counter. The suspect took out cash and then emptied the entire drawer into a plastic bag. The suspect exited the business, entered a black Ford Edge, and fled the location.

The suspect was described as: Male, black, 27-30 years old, 5'10", 185lbs, black clothing, and a blue medical mask. The suspect has unknown tattoo(s) on back of his left hand.

Still surveillance images from both robberies are attached.
