

SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF HEALTH DATA BRIEF

FACT: In 2017, over 50% of Franklin County’s infant deaths occurred in CelebrateOne priority areas.

FACT: Addressing issues impacting the community’s overall health can improve these outcomes.

Generations-long social, economic, and environmental inequities result in poor health outcomes. These inequities affect some communities worse than others; however, enhanced policies, practices, and organizational systems can help improve opportunities for all Franklin County residents.
