

Columbus Division of Police 3rd Annual Domestic Violence Conference

Save-the-Date

Wednesday October 24, 2018

9am-5pm

Columbus Police Training Academy

1000 North Hague Avenue, Columbus, Ohio

The Conference theme is Trauma Informed Response. Speakers will discuss the physiological effects of trauma and how first responders and advocates respond to victims who have experience trauma. A presenter will provide the best way for responders to care for themselves. Attendees will learn how trauma affects the brain and the ability to recall information as well as how to recognize vicarious trauma.

Registration information will begin August 2018.

Conference date is the day before the Ohio Attorney General's Conference.

For more information contact CpdDvConf@columbuspolice.org