Narco Symbology

Narco Symbology

This two day training provides an overview of drug trafficking and human trafficking organization identifiers including emblems, tattoos, symbols, clothing, jewelry, sacred objects and more. Mexican cartel and narco cult folk beliefs, ritual practices and related saint worship is described. This class will prepare officers to recognize atypical evidence and paraphernalia found during searches and at crime scenes. The prevalence of saint worship in Mexico and areas of the U.S. particularly Santa Muerte, the Death Saint, will be described in detail.

Instructor: Tony Kail is a cultural anthropologist and former Sheriff's Deputy. Kail has provided training and consulting for the FBI, U.S. Capitol Police, United States Attorney's Office and the United States Army. He is the author of numerous articles and four books including Narco Cults: Understanding the Use of Afro-Caribbean and Mexican Religious Cultures in the Drug Wars from CRC Press.
