COLUMBUS DIVISION OF POLICE SELECTS A NEW PIO

Chief Kimberley Jacobs is pleased to announce that Sergeant Chantay Boxill will be handling the duties of Public Information Officer for the Division.

Sgt. Boxill, 57, is a 28-year veteran of the Columbus Division of Police. Sgt. Boxill was promoted to sergeant in 1997. Prior to her promotion she worked in Patrol and as a High School Resource Officer at Linden-McKinley High School. After her promotion to sergeant she spent 4 years in Patrol before transferring to the Internal Affairs Bureau. In May 2005, Sgt. Boxill became the supervisor of the Criminal Intelligence Unit, (formally called the Gang Unit). Sgt. Boxill spent 13 years as the supervisor of CIU before transferring to the Narcotics Bureau.

Born in Canton, Ohio and raised in the Linden area of Columbus, Sgt. Boxill graduated from Columbus North High School. She holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Mt. Vernon Nazarene University.

Sgt. Boxill is certified by OPOTA to teach Criminal Gang Identifiers and has taught several Columbus Police Recruit classes and Police Basic classes at the State Highway Patrol Academy.

Amongst her many accomplishments, her pride and joy are her daughters Zuri and Uele.

Sgt. Boxill will be assigned the city cell phone: 614-809-1147 and can also be reached at cboxill@columbuspolice.org.
