Incident Summary: On June 14, 2018, the suspect permitted and encouraged 21 children under her supervision at the Playtime Pre-school to engage in physical altercations with each other while on the playground. None of the children were seriously injured during the incident. The suspect failed to maintain a duty of care while the children were under her supervision and has been charged with 21 counts of Endangering Children. The incident was recorded by the suspect and posted on social media. None of the children were seriously injured.

The investigation revealed, Chavay Williams, acted on her own accord and when Playtime Pre-school itself was made aware of the incident the daycare took immediate action to correct it.
