Incident Summary: On February 13, 2019 at approximately 1:16pm two suspects entered the Subway located at 5892 Karl Rd.. The suspects placed an order and while the employees were completing the order the suspects jumped the counter. The suspect in the neon vest pulled a black gun demanding the employees open the register. The employees complied with the demand. The suspect in the blue mechanics coveralls stopped a customer as he was trying to exit and removed his wallet from his pants pocket. The suspects removed the money from the register and fled on foot.

Suspect #1 was described as a male black, 30-40yrs old, 5'8", heavysset, wearing a dark zip up hoody, blue tobagen, neon vest, dark pants and black and white tennis shoes. This suspect displayed a blk handgun.

Suspect #2 was described as a male black, 30-40yrs old, 6'0", glasses, skinny, dark complexion, wearing blue mechanics coveralls.

The incident was captured on the stores surveillance cameras. Still photos are attached.

Anyone with information as to the identity of the suspects are asked to contact the Columbus Police Robbery Unit at 614-645-4665.
