Incident Summary: On February 22, 2019, Columbus Police responded to the area of 734 River St. regarding an adult male entering the Scioto River and not returning to the banks.

On April 3, 2019 at 5:44pm, Columbus Police were dispatched to the area of Scioto Blvd. and Greenlawn Ave. on a report that a body was located in the water by fishermen. Columbus Fire responded and pronounced the victim deceased. Columbus Police Dive Team responded and recovered an adult male, who was transported to the Franklin County Coroner's Office.

At this time we believe the male to be the same individual that went missing on February 22, 2019. Upon positive identification, an update will be made. No foul play is believed to be involved in this incident.
