

Columbus Division of Police 4th Annual Domestic Violence Conference

Join law enforcement, advocates, victims, and allies as we come together to discuss the realities of domestic violence in our communities and how we can better help those in need.

The Columbus Division of Police will be hosting our 4th Annual Domestic Violence Conference on Wednesday, October 23, 2019 from 8am-5pm.

The Conference theme is Creating Alliances for Conviction. This year we will discuss the collaboration between law enforcement, prosecutors, medical personnel, and advocates to create a team approach to handling cases and working with victims. How do we all work together to ensure we are not only meeting the needs of victims but putting together the best case possible for prosecution.

We also invite you to join us for the last hour to learn how to best defend yourself in an attack. Attendance for this hour is optional and attendees will learn self-defense tactics on how to get out of choke holds and finding environmental weapons to help you in your defense. Tennis shoes or flat soled shoes are required for this portion of the conference.

There is no fee to attend, but registration is required. Deadline for registration is October 11, 2019. Please contact us at CpdDvConf@columbuspolice.org, for more details. Registration form is attached.
