Incident Summary: On October 5th, 2019, at 7:45 pm, the suspect entered the T-Mobile at 5070 N. High St. wearing a green "Alien" mask and a cross slung black and red gym bag, armed with a large knife. The employee ran in a back room and locked the door. The suspect decided to flee the store. The suspect momentarily raised his mask and video was taken of his face. The suspect fled towards N. High St.

At approximately 7:53 pm, the suspect entered the Subway at 2811 Morse Rd. The suspect brandished his knife and demanded the register cash from the cashier, who opened the register and the suspect took the available cash. The suspect fled out the side door towards Chesford Rd.

At approximately 8:20 pm, the suspect entered the Chipotle at 4750 Morse Rd. Once again the suspect brandished his knife demanding cash from the cashier. She opened the register and the suspect took the cash. The suspect then got into what appeared to be a gray or silver colored 4 door car (Possibly a Honda Civic).

Any information about the identity of the suspect of these robberies can be directed to Det. Agee (614) 645-3941 or the Columbus Police Robbery Squad at (614) 645-4665.
