Incident Summary: On October 11, 2019, at approximately 10:30 AM, the Vice Principal and the Resource Officer at Eastmoor Academy were notified by a sixteen year old student that another student (seventeen years of age) had placed a gun in his (the reporting student's) backpack. The Vice Principal and Resource Officer recovered the backpack and found a loaded gun inside.

During the subsequent investigation the seventeen year old student confessed to bringing the firearm to school and putting it in the other student's backpack. The seventeen year old student was charged with conveying the firearm onto school property as well as carrying a concealed weapon.
