Incident Summary: On February 6, 2020, at approximately 10:23 a.m., an unknown male suspect entered the La Perla Fine jewelry store, displayed a firearm, threatened and assaulted the female victim employee while demanding the safe be opened. The victim was able to scream for help and witnesses from a neighboring business called the police. The suspect fled the location without obtaining any money. The suspect originally posed as a delivery person to gain entry.

The suspect was described as a male black, lighter complexion, beard or goatee, wearing all dark clothing, a hoodie and black shoes with white stripes.
