Incident Summary: The suspect entered the business while the employee was at the beer cooler. The employee walked to the registers and as he went behind the counter the suspect followed him brandishing a handgun. The suspect demanded the money from the registers and after obtaining the money began demanding more money. The suspect ordered the employee to the ground and threatened to kill him. The employee told him that there was no more money and the suspect grabbed numerous scratch off lottery tickets. The suspect described as the following:

Male, Bi-racial, 25-30, 5'6", 170, wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with the hood up, black mask, black gloves, black cargo pants, black boots/shoes, and was armed with a black semi-auto handgun

On February 14, 2020, the male in the photos attempted to cash winning lottery tickets taken from the robbery.
