Incident Summary: On January 26, 2021 at approximately 12:15 a.m. two female victims traveled to the area of 483 N. Garfield Avenue in order to meet with an unknown person to purchase drugs. When they arrived and spoke to the two male black suspects that were standing in the alley, one displayed a handgun and demanded their money. The victims attempted to drive away and one of the suspects dove into the passengers window of the car and fired one shot striking the driver in the leg. The victims then stopped the car and surrendered cash to the suspect. The victims sped away and drove to Grant Hospital where she was treated for a minor gunshot wound. Detectives responded and evidence was collected. The case is still under investigation.

Anyone with information as to the identity of the suspect are asked to contact the Columbus Police Robbery Unit at 614-645-4665
