Incident Summary: On listed date and time CPD responded to a robbery/home invasion during which one of the victim's sustained gunshot wounds and was transported to a nearby hospital. He underwent emergency surgery and survived the violent attack. The suspect had entered the residence, brandished a handgun and demanded valuables and property. The suspect held the occupants at gunpoint demanding they undress and lay on the floor. One of the occupants was shot by the suspect and another was beaten during the crime.

CPD Robbery Unit investigators are requesting the public's assistance with the identification of a Person of Interest (POI). The POI is described as being a male, black, mid to late thirties, 6'0 to 6'2 in height and weighing approx. 200 to 210 lbs. The POI was wearing winter jacket with fur hood, brown toboggan cap and a gray sweatshirt. A total of three images of the POI are included with this media release.

Anyone with information regarding the identity of this person is asked to call the Columbus Police Robbery Unit at 614-645-4665 or anonymously through Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-8477.
