

9-1-1 Homicide:

Is the Caller the Killer?

CRIME SCENE DO NOT ENTER

CRIME SCENE DO NOT ENTER

Date: November 1-2, 2021 8:00am - 4:00pm

Location: Columbus Police Training Academy
1000 N. Hague Ave.
Columbus, Ohio 43204

- Participants must attend both days

NOTE: The first day Dep. Chief Harpster's presentation will focus on how to do the cop scale and some cases. The second day will focus on INFANT DEATHS and the 911 calls associated with these investigations. Investigators are welcome to bring 911 calls and Tracy will help you analyze your calls after the class. This conference will be the FIRST presentation regarding this specific topic in the country.

Registration packets will be sent out in August.

Contact Lisa Murray @
Immurray@columbuspolice.org

Tracy Harpster has served as a police officer in Ohio since 1984. He has worked as street officer, undercover narcotics officer, Sergeant, Detective Sergeant, Lieutenant and Deputy Chief. In 2006, DC Harpster achieved a Graduate degree from the University of Cincinnati where his Master's Thesis examined the indicators of innocence and guilt of 9-1-1 homicide callers reporting the offense. The study defined and analyzed the indicators in order to assist homicide detectives gain insight into the offense, suggest offender probability, and explore pertinent issues during the interview and interrogation phases of the investigation. Deputy Chief Harpster is a member of the Vidocq Society and has shared his research at homicide conferences across the country and used his research to investigate over 2000 homicides.

This training is specifically designed to educate all criminal justice personnel including Dispatchers, Law Enforcement Officers, Detectives, Supervisors, Medical

