Incident Summary: On 7/16/2021, at approximately 5:08 PM, a 5 year old male was brought into Children's Hospital suffering from a gunshot wound that went through both knees. CPD Special duty notified CPD Radio who dispatched Columbus Police Patrol officers to the 1000 block of Seymour Avenue to secure the location of the incident. Detectives determined that the 5 year old was lying on the couch next to his mother (Suspect), Trenise B Turner. Ms. Turner who was intoxicated, was pointing her handgun at several adults in the home, making threats. As she was putting the handgun back in her purse, she fired a shot, striking her son in the legs. The 5 year old was transported to Children's Hospital by family and is in stable condition waiting for corrective surgery in the morning. Trenise B Turner was charged with felony Endangering of Children and transported to the Franklin County Jail.
