Incident Summary: On September 26, 2021, at 2:33 pm, the suspect entered the N & N Market and requested smoking products. The suspect handed the clerk, a $5 bill. The clerk slid over the items and the suspect handed him a credit card. The clerk slid it back as he took the $5 bill for the $5.29 debt. The suspect exited, getting into a blue four door sedan.

At 2:49 pm, the same suspect re-entered the N & N Market claiming the clerk took his $10 in cash. The suspect pulled out a semi-automatic handgun, racked it and demanded his cash back. The clerk said he only gave him a single bill and it was a $5. The suspect put his handgun back in his waist band and said he was getting his $10 worth. The suspect walked to the back cooler and took an armful of CORE water bottles and walked out. The suspect was seen getting into the same large blue four door sedan (There was no front tag to identify). A woman was seen driving the car and she briefly went inside and yelled at the clerk.

Officers were able to view the incident on security video. They verified that the suspect did hand the clerk a $5 bill and that he did draw the weapon and present it while in the store.
