Incident Summary: Victim was at a gathering with some friends when an argument started that turned into a physical altercation. During the fight a few people in the group began to spray mace at each other. One male that was maced produced a handgun and began firing several shots striking the victim once in the chest. The victim was transported to Riverside Hospital by some friends. Riverside was able to stabilize the victim and she is expected to recover from her injuries. After the victim was stabilized she was then transported to Childrens Hospital for further care. Her mother was notified at Riverside Hospital and spoke with Detectives.

This is the 1269th Felony Assault case in 2021.
