Incident Summary: On 10/14/21, at approximately 5:11PM, a male and female were observed, by loss prevention, shoplifting merchandise. The pair attempted to leave the store with the stolen property and were stopped. The suspects didn't cooperate with store employees and during the course of the encounter attempted to spit on them. In addition the male made threats, claiming he was armed with a firearm. At one point the male displayed what was believed to be the grip of a handgun in his waistband.

The Columbus Division of Police Robbery Unit is releasing images of the two persons of interest and requesting assistance with their identification. Call the Robbery Unit or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers if either of these two individuals identification is known, at 614-645-4665 (Robbery Unit) or 614-461-8477 (Crime Stoppers).
