Incident Summary: On November 4, 2021, the victim was working inside a residence located in the 3500 block of Maize Rd. The female suspect entered an unlocked door and was confronted by the victim who asked her to leave. The female suspect was escorted out of the residence by the victim. The male suspect exited a silver vehicle parked in the driveway and confronted the victim at the door. The victim was closing the door and the male suspect forced his way inside where a struggle ensued and a gun fell out of the suspect's pants onto the floor. The suspect gained control of the gun and pointed it at the victim demanding his wallet and phone. The victim complied with the demand. The suspects left in a silver vehicle.

Shortly after the robbery unknown suspects can be seen on surveillance video using the victim's credit cards at several different locations. (Photos attached)
