Columbus Police Announce “Cram-A-Cruiser” Toy Drive

On Saturday, December 4, 2021, the Columbus Division of Police will be hosting its first annual “Cram-A-Cruiser” toy drive. The event will take place from 1:00 P.M. until 4:00 P.M. at the Driving Park Community Center, located at 1100 Rhoads Avenue. Officers will be in the parking lot accepting new, unwrapped toys from those who wish to donate.

The toys collected will be dispersed to families of homicide victims and to financially struggling families throughout Columbus.

A flyer for the event is attached to this media release. Please share this event through your various platforms including on air and online.

If you would like to make an interview request before the event, please reach out to Sgt. Albert at the phone number listed above.
