Incident Summary: On 1/13/2022, at 3:32 pm, officers were dispatched to the 5600 block of Tamarack Blvd. Officers made contact with the victim at this location to report an unknown projectile entering her garage door. Officers were given access to the inside of the garage and were able to search for the projectile. Officers were unable to find the projectile. The victim stated she heard gunshots around 2:30am. Officers were then approached by the next door neighbor and were informed they also had a bullet hole in their house next to the front door and a bullet that struck their company truck through the rear passenger window and exited the driver's door window and then struck the tow mirror. Officers attempted to find the projectiles and were unable. No suspect information at this time.
