Incident Summary: A. C. states that he was at Callahans Bar in the arena district, when he was assaulted by staff and thrown down some stairs. A.C. then waited in his vehicle for the staff member to leave for the night because he wanted to talk to him. Upon seeing the staff member leave and get into a vehicle, A. C. then followed/chased the vehicle. After a few minutes of chasing the vehicle, A.C. was able to pull up next to the vehicle on the passenger side. The passenger in the vehicle then fired a single gunshot through his drivers side window striking A.C. once in the shoulder. A.C. didn't know the location where the shooting occurred just that it was near I-670. A. C. then drove himself to Mt. Carmel East hospital for his injury and is expected to fully recover.
