Incident Summary: On above listed date and time, two suspects entered the N. High St. business. The first suspect entered the business pretending to be a customer, dressed in a black and blue hoody. The second suspect entered, dressed in a white Air Jordan hoody. The robbery began when the second suspect brandished a firearm, pressing it against the clerk's head and threatening to kill him. While the clerk was held at gunpoint, the first suspect emptied the cash register. The suspects fled the business on foot with a small amount of cash.

Take a good look at these images and help CPD stop these suspects from committing another violent crime.

The Columbus Police Robbery Unit is requesting the public's help to identify these two suspects. Anyone with information about their identity is encouraged to call the Columbus Police Robbery Unit at 615-645-4665 or anonymously through Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-8477.
