

Lee Mardis Jr. was born October 16th, 1997. Soon to be father to his baby girl. A loving son, brother, father, fiancé, and family member. He worked hard with his dogs and made his own business "4KW Exotic Kennels" as dogs/animals were his passion. He is a GREAT MAN and HERO as he passed protecting his fiancé and baby girl. We will miss you! There is only one you. You are your own man and an amazing one at that. Loyal. Loving. Generous. Full of integrity. He is the kind of son anyone would be lucky to have. We will miss you until we meet again. I love you son forever and always.
