IV. New Applications

CAC #22-3 -01

Art Project: Outdoor Mural at Barack Community Center

Applicant: Columbus Recreation and Parks, Department, Mark Stansbery, Center Director

Location: Barack Community Center, 580 Woodrow Avenue,

Artist: Felicia Mercoledi DeRosa, DeRosa Art

The Center received funding from the ADAM for a mural. The center offers boxing instruction and competitions. They decided to work with artist Felicia DeRosa on a boxing themed mural to be painted on an exterior wall. DeRosa prepared a mural concept for Commission review and input with the intent to return in April with a completed design and request for CAC approval.

Commission Action Requested: Motion to conceptually approve the design and placement of the artwork proposed for a mural at Barack Community Center per CC3115.04 (A) & (B).

CAC #22-3-02

Art Project: Utility Pole Art

Applicant: Short North Alliance (SNA), Caitlyn Dunn

Location: Utility poles along N. 4th Street from E. Lincoln Ave. to 5th Ave. and from High St. to 4th St.

Artist(s): Artist Call not yet released

The SNA is seeking conceptual approval from the CAC for a project to place art on utility poles found on 4th St. and 5th Ave. The poles located along the north side of 5th avenue fall within the boundaries of the University Area District Review Board, from whom the SNA has sought feedback.

Commission Action Requested:

Motion to conceptually approve the design and placement of the Utility Pole Art Program, to art on the utility poles along 4th St. and 5th Ave., per CC3115.04 (C)
