Incident Summary: On May 1, 2022 at approximately 2:30 a.m. RK went to an address to pick up a friend. RK knocked on the door to the residence and a female cracked opened the door to see who it was. RK asked the female if his friend was there but then observed two males and a female approaching him from the parking lot. One of the males pulled a firearm from his waist band so RK pushed the door to the apartment open in an attempt to get away. The suspect fired at RK who was struck once in the lower body. RK ran through the residence and out the back door. RK ran a good distance until he felt the pain of the wound and knocked on a door of another residence for help. Officers responded to the area and found the scene of the shooting as described by RK. CFD Medic #1 responded and transported RK to Grant Hospital in stable condition. RK is expected to survive his injuries.
