Incident Summary: On 06 September, 2022 at 9:00 p.m., officers contacted the Sexual Assault Unit after being dispatched to the 1800 block of Parsons Ave. where the victim had been shot in the leg by his live-in girlfriend suspect. Detective Stuart responded to Grant Medical Center where the victim had already been treated and released. Victim stated he was walking on Reeb Ave. when the suspect drove by and shot him in the lower right leg. The suspect was interviewed and stated the victim fired a hand gun at her as she drove by him on Reeb Ave. Detectives viewed photos of the victim's graze wound which revealed a downward and slightly back trajectory on his lower right calf. This appeared to be more consistent with an accidental self-inflicted gunshot wound. Shell casings located at the scene also did not appear to have come from inside of a vehicle due to the victim's description of the shooter's position. This is the result of an ongoing dispute between the victim and suspect regarding their relationship.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Columbus Police Sexual Assault Detective Stuart #2169 at 614-645-2439 or central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-TIPS(8477). You may remain anonymous.
