Incident Summary: On 8-14-22 at approximately 5:00 AM, the victim heard a noise outside and went to check on his vehicle parked in the 1700 block of Schrock Rd. When he arrived, the victim observed the suspect underneath his F-150 pickup, cutting off the catalytic converter. The victim shouted at the suspect and he fled on foot, leaving behind the catalytic converter.

While reviewing video footage of the incident, the property owner discovered that the suspect returned to the property in the early afternoon and appeared to be looking for the catalytic converter.
