Office of the Mayor

2023 BUDGET NOTES

The recommended budget for the Office of the Mayor provides for the continued operation of the office, including funding to support the activities of the Columbus Women's Commission.

Heading into its seventh year, the Columbus Women's Commission is funded at $320,860 and remains focused on dismantling barriers and reducing gender and race-based inequities to improve the economic position of women in our community. Through education, awareness, and advocacy, the Commission champions policy change by working in the following areas: gender equity in the workplace, affordable housing and evictions, health, and workforce development. The Commission continues to work alongside other city departments to support the Financial Empowerment Roadmap. Of particular note, over 280 Columbus area employers have signed the Columbus Commitment, a voluntary, employer-led initiative to close the gender and race-based wage gap in Columbus.

In addition, funding of $4.0 million is provided for creation of the Office of Violence Prevention within the Office of the Mayor. The Office of Violence Prevention will serve as a hub for the reduction of gun violence through research, legislation, and coordination with the Columbus Department of Public Health and other agencies. The Office will rely heavily on ongoing community engagement efforts including a Violence Reduction Planning Process where meetings will be convened with community and inter-departmental leaders on the implementation of the City's violence reduction plan.
