Columbus Police Giving Away Turkeys to Families for Thanksgiving

Officers will be handing out turkeys at 6 locations across Columbus

The Columbus Division of Police in association with Wasco Wholesale Automotive Supplies is giving back to the community this Thanksgiving by offering free turkeys to local families. Turkeys will be available on Monday, November 21, 2022, beginning at 12 p.m. at six locations throughout the City of Columbus.

- Headquarters – 120 Marconi Boulevard
- Substation 5 – 1371 Cleveland Avenue
- Substation 11 – 950 East Main Street
- Substation 13 – 544 Woodrow Avenue
- Substation 18 – 1120 Morse Road
- Substation 19 – 2070 Sullivant Avenue

The Columbus Division of Police has partnered with Byers Auto Group, Giant Eagle, Columbus Police Foundation, Yenkin-Majestic Paint Corporation, and Jeff Ruby's Steakhouse for this year's giveaway.

The giveaway will be on a first come first serve basis while supplies last. No prior signup is necessary and it is open to all Columbus residents.
