Incident Summary: On January 14, 2023 at approximately 8:43 p.m., Columbus Police were dispatched to the Easton Town Center, located at (4001 Gramercy Place), for a large group of juveniles, fighting while inside the mall. Special Duty CPD Officers, along with Easton Security, were first to respond and observed approximately 40-50 juveniles actively fighting on the first floor of the mall. Officers intervened and detained two (2) of the most aggressively fighting juveniles and placed them under arrest. During the search of these two juveniles, officers located and took custody of fully loaded handguns, that these juveniles had concealed on their persons. Officers placed both juveniles under arrest, transported them to the Columbus Police HQ where they were interviewed by detectives. Both were charged with Aggravated Riot and CCW, then taken to the Juvenile Detention Center
