Incident Summary: Columbus Police responded to a school in the 1200 block of Koebel Rd. on a call of a student with a gun. School staff had received an anonymous tip that one of two boys had a gun on their person. Prior to police arriving school staff had searched them both and found a pistol with a loaded magazine in the pocket of one of them. The 16 year old male left the building and fled in an unknown direction prior to police arrival.

The investigation continues and charges will be filed in the future.
