Incident Summary: On 12/9/2022 shortly before closing of a local retail store, two suspects walk to the Shop & Scan lanes with several sets of sheets and blankets. The male suspect separated from the female suspect while she was paying. The male exited the store with the cart of merchandise before the female purchased any of the merchandise.

The male suspect was stopped by a loss prevention employee, and asked to come to the office. As male was escorted back into the store, the female suspect walked out of the store. The female suspect walked off lane without paying for any of the merchandise. Loss Prevention attempted to stop the female suspect. At this point both subjects refused to come back into the store, and left in a white sedan.

Photographs are attached.
