Incident Summary: On 02/26/23, at 6:12PM, a series of criminal offenses occurred that were later attributed to the listed suspect. The series of crimes, in Columbus, ended at 6:47PM. Later, on that evening, the suspect was pronounced dead in Morrow County. The following is a description of the incidents that occurred in the City of Columbus.

02/26/23, at 6:28PM, the suspect fired rounds into an unoccupied Chevy. The locked vehicle had been left running, while the owner went into a gas station, in the 4000 block of Kenny Rd. The suspect left his car, a Toyota, behind and fled in the stolen Chevy. No injuries were reported. CPD responded.

02/26/23, at 6:36PM, the stolen Chevy had been abandoned on Starret Rd.. 911 calls were received from residents in the 200 block of W. Henderson Rd. The callers reported that shots were being fired during an attempted robbery / home invasion. The suspect successfully stole a white BMW X3 from one location in the area. No injuries were reported. Next, at 6:47PM, the suspect attempted to rob a food delivery driver in the 400 block of Glenmont Ave. Shots fired, no injuries were reported. CPD responded.

The suspect has been identified and the stolen BMW X3 was recovered. No additional suspects are being sought.
