✓ Learn what's really causing the vast majority of lawsuits, lost careers, and community unrest, and how to prevent them

✓ Ensure you are confidently, effectively, and lawfully applying your authority throughout every step of police-citizen contacts

✓ Stay ahead of today's growing law enforcement challenges by receiving industry-leading training that is thoroughly backed by case law

✓ Apply our formula for making lawful stops and detentions every time

✓ Avoid the 6 circumstances leading to unlawful stops and detentions

✓ Develop critical skills that can gain voluntary compliance and significantly reduce the need to apply force

✓ Become a more competent and skilled use of force decision-maker, and clearly articulate your decisions

✓ Learn things you've probably never known about Terry stops, Terry frisks, arrest, and police use of force

✓ And SO MUCH MORE

Three critical mistakes made by officers are causing an alarming increase in lawsuits against officers and agencies nationwide. These mistakes are also costing officers their careers and spawning community unrest. Our research shows that officer-induced escalation during police-citizen contacts is the primary cause of eroding support for law enforcement, regardless of rank and years of service. That's why this non-escalation training is imperative for officer success in today's volatile environment.
