Incident Summary: UPDATE: As of 5/23/2023 13 of 16 suspects have been positively identified. Suspects 1, 2, & 10 still need positively identified.

An additional 7 persons have been determined to have been involved and assistance is needed in identifying suspects #18 through #23.

Anyone with information on the individuals pictured is asked to contact the investigating detective at 614-645-1435 or zrosen@columbuspolice.org.

On 4/29/2023 at 11:50 PM to 4/30/2023 at 12:15 PM a large group of individuals and vehicles affiliated with reckless operation, the "take-overs" of city streets, businesses, and private properties, arrived at a business in the 2800 block of Johnstown Road.

The group recklessly caused, inconvenience, annoyance, and alarm to the employees and paying customers by hindering their movement on a public street, or upon public or private property. The vehicles were blocking the lot, access to fuel pumps and entry and exits public roadways.

Individuals from this group entered the business and began taking possession of merchandise, consuming it on the premise, concealing it on their person, and carrying out of the business without having purchased the merchandise. Surveillance video captured the incident and the investigating detective is attempting to obtain the identification of 16 individuals involved in the incident.

Anyone with information on the individuals pictured is asked to contact the investigating detective at 614-645-1435 or zrosen@columbuspolice.org.
