Serve as the direct communication link between the city and community.

A one-stop-shop for city services.

Dedicated to protecting the health, safety and welfare of the families living in the area.

COLUMBUS AREA COMMISSIONS

In the early 1970's, Columbus City Council established Area Commissions to act as a liaison between neighborhood groups and city government.

In 1996, the Area Commission provisions of the Columbus City Code were re-organized and moved from the Zoning Code to Title 31 of the Columbus City Codes - what is now known as the Planning and Historic Preservation Code.

The purpose of Area Commissions is spelled out in CCC 3109.01:

COLUMBUS AREA COMMISSIONS

PURPOSE:

- To afford additional voluntary citizens participation in decision making in an advisory capacity
- Facilitate communication, understanding and cooperation between neighborhood groups, city officials and developers

Area Commissions are made up of citizen volunteers that perform a number of public functions:

- hold hearings on problems and issues affecting the neighborhood
- recommend legislative solutions
- make recommendations for restoration and preservation of historical elements and
- participate in decision-making by making recommendations on matters pertaining to re-zonings, special permits, variances, demolitions, and zoning appeals.

Area Commissions:

- Meetings
- Best Practices
- Code of Conduct, Inclusion and Removal
- Conflict of Interest
- Legal Considerations
- Budget
- Fund Raising / Contracts
- Subcommittees
- Elections
- Appointed and Elected Members

• Members serve terms of 3 years.

The Columbus City Charter requires that all public bodies hold meetings in accordance with the general laws of the State of Ohio pertaining to Open Meetings.

An Area Commission, with its commissioners appointed by the Mayor and with its advisory role in the decision-making process relating to zoning and planning issues, is a Public Body and must comply with the Open Meetings Act.

CURRENT EMERGENCY MEASURES – COVID-19

During the period of the emergency, the state code amendments allow for:

- Members of a public body may hold, attend, and conduct meetings & hearings by means of:
 - Teleconference, video conference, or any other similar technology
- For such meetings:

 All members attending via technology will be considered "present," may be permitted to vote, and shall be counted towards determining a quorum
