

Identifying and Documenting Non-Fatal Strangulation in Sexual Assault: Training for Law Enforcement Officers

About: The Criminology Research Center at Cleveland State University is offering FREE training to sworn law enforcement officers across Ohio on non-fatal strangulation in sexual assault cases.

Credits: Training counts toward TWO credit hours of OPOTA Continuing Professional Training (26CPT1026).

Objectives: Program participants will gain a better understanding of the symptoms and dangers of non-fatal strangulation, as well as how to conduct interviews and write reports that align with the requirements of Ohio's strangulation statute, ORC 2903.18.

Date & Location

Columbus Division of Police

Chief James G. Jackson
Columbus Police Training Academy

1000 N. Hague Ave.

Columbus, OH

May 11, 2026

8:00 – 10:00 a.m.

COST

FREE. Funding for this training was provided through a grant from the Ohio Office of Criminal Justice Services.

Please register using this QR code. Space is limited.

For information or questions, please e-mail CrimCenter@csuohio.edu.