Incident Summary:
 On Thursday, February 28, 2025, at 7:03PM, Columbus Police Officers were called to 400 block of Kimball PI. on a report of a shooting. On arrival officers found Marquise Williams Jr., 20, suffering from an apparent gunshot wound along with three other injured adults. Williams and two of the other injured parties, who were also suffering from gunshot wounds, were transported by medics to Grant Medical Center. Williams was transported from the scene in critical condition and at 10:31PM was pronounced deceased at Grant. The other two victims transported to Grant are in stable condition.

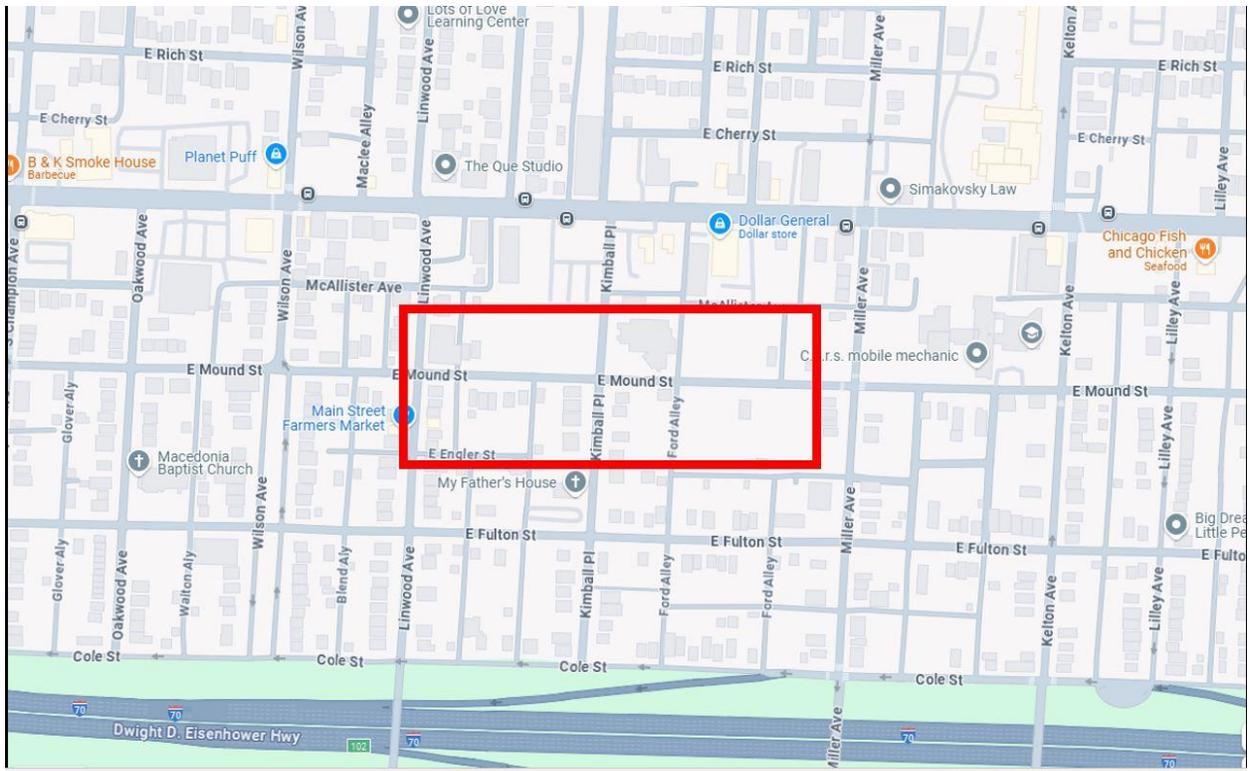

A fourth adult was transported from the scene to OSU East hospital in stable. In addition to the injured parties listed above, four residences were struck by gunfire. The shooting appears to have stemmed from a disagreement between one of the surviving victims and another man.

Detectives are asking anyone with a camera in the area of interest marked on the provided map to check for footage. Video files can be shared directly with the investigating detectives using the provided QR code or at the following URL:
