Incident Summary: On February 18, 2024 at approximately 1:15 a.m., Columbus police officers responded to the 3600 Block of Soldano Boulevard on the report of a shooting. Officers arrived and located spent casings at the scene and three (3) separate business fronts that had been struck by gunfire. A short time later, two (2) adult victims walked in to a local area hospital. Victim one (1) had sustained a gunshot wound to the lower body. Victim two (2) had sustained multiple gunshot wounds to the upper body. It was determined that the victims had been injured at the original dispatched location. The victims remain in stable condition and are expected to survive. The incident is still under investigation.

Anyone with additional information regarding this incident is asked to call the Columbus Police Felony Assault Unit at 614-645-4141 or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-TIPS (8477).
