Incident Summary: On October 11, 2023 Columbus Police Officers responded to the 3000 block of Valley View Drive for a report of a male that entered a school, while in possession of a handgun, machete, and hatchet. The caller stated the male suspect had a handgun that was in a holster on his right hip and the machete was attached to the suspect's leg. The officers were provided with the suspect's name and physical description by the caller. The caller stated that the male suspect was at the school to pick up his child who was a student there. The officers arrived and located the suspect just outside of the school. During the investigation, the officers recovered a machete, hatchet, and Glock manufactured BB-Gun from the suspect's vehicle that was parked at the school.
