Jurisdiction

I. Definitions

A. Concurrent Jurisdiction

Enforcement authority shared by two or more law enforcement agencies at a particular location or on a particular subject matter.

B. Exclusive Jurisdiction

Enforcement authority granted to only one law enforcement agency at a particular location or on a particular subject matter.

C. Limited Jurisdiction

Enforcement authority which is not absolute.

II. Policy Statements

A. Statement of Jurisdiction

1. Except for areas of exclusive federal jurisdiction, the Columbus Division of Police has authority to enforce City of Columbus and State of Ohio laws at all sites within the City's corporation limits. This includes post office branches, federal and state buildings and properties, and other government buildings and properties. Sworn Division personnel are not relieved of the duty to take action merely because a location may be primarily serviced by another police agency.
2. The only area of exclusive federal jurisdiction within the City of Columbus is a small portion of the Defense Supply Center Columbus, 3990 East Broad Street. The majority of this location is in the City of Whitehall. As a matter of professional courtesy, the Columbus Division of Police may assist the Federal Protective Service by securing the perimeter of the property in serious situations. Sworn Division personnel shall not enter the property except in life-threatening situations.
3. Sworn Division personnel have limited jurisdiction on City-owned property that is used for a public purpose and outside the corporate limits. In such areas of limited jurisdiction, sworn Division personnel may only arrest for felony violations. Sworn personnel may issue a citation/summons to violators who are trespassing on or damaging City-owned property. Other misdemeanor violations are not enforceable by sworn Division personnel.

B. Determining Geographical Boundaries

- 1. The Division of Support Services GIS Unit shall maintain current maps and other resources representing the geographical boundaries of the City of Columbus for the Emergency Communications Center (ECC).
 - 2. Sworn Division personnel needing to determine if a certain location is within the corporate limits of the City of Columbus shall contact the ECC for clarification. The ECC shall be the ultimate authority in this determination.
- C. Sworn Division personnel shall not take law enforcement action outside the jurisdictional limits of the City of Columbus except as provided by law and Division policy. This does not prohibit Division personnel from exercising their rights as citizens as provided by state law.
- D. Two or More Agencies Effecting an Arrest
- 1. The agency having jurisdiction over the location of the crime should retain custody of the prisoner.
 - 2. If neither agency has jurisdiction over the location of the crime, the agency having jurisdiction over the arrest location should retain custody of the prisoner.

- c. Sworn Division personnel shall take appropriate police action for incidents they observe and/or are dispatched to at OSU.
- d. On-duty law enforcement officers of OSU shall be requested to, and shall have full authority to, enforce state laws while outside the jurisdiction of OSU and within the City of Columbus in one or more of the following circumstances:
 - (1) Observe a crime while upon OSU property or traveling to and from OSU property
 - (a) Felony: With the exception of non-violent drug offenses, if an OSU officer views a felony offense or otherwise has reasonable suspicion to believe that a felony has occurred or is about to occur outside of OSU property and within the City, the officer shall make any appropriate investigative detention and/or arrest according to law and take any appropriate measures to preserve the crime scene. OSU shall immediately notify the ECC upon becoming aware of the potential criminal activity and their response. Upon arrival, a sworn Division supervisor shall make a determination as to whether to take control of any arrested person, evidence, and the crime scene. However, OSU personnel may immediately transport or relocate any arrested person or evidence if the officer determines that remaining at the crime scene could endanger him or herself or others or threaten the preservation of any evidence. Should the sworn Division supervisor then not take control, if appropriate and according to law, OSU personnel shall have full authority and responsibility, including, but not limited to, transporting and slating, medical care, and/or jail expenses. When a Division officer is present and observes the same event as the OSU officer, the Division officer has the responsibility to be the primary responder and the OSU officer may supply mutual aid if requested by the Columbus Division of Police. In this case, all investigative and other work shall remain the responsibility of the Division. In addition, for purposes of this Agreement, once the immediate need for actions by the OSU officer ends and a Division officer responds, all further work shall remain the responsibility of Division personnel.

- (b) Non-Traffic Misdemeanors of Violence and/or Theft: If an OSU officer views a misdemeanor offense of violence and/or theft offense or otherwise has reasonable suspicion to believe a misdemeanor of violence and/or theft offense has occurred or is about to occur outside of OSU property and within the City, the OSU officer shall make any appropriate investigative detention and/or arrest according to law and shall have full authority and responsibility, including, but not limited to, transporting and slating, for such a misdemeanor offense. OSU shall be responsible for any medical care and/or jail expenses.
- (c) Traffic Offenses and Traffic Direction: OSU officers shall not initiate traffic or pedestrian stops outside of OSU property based purely on misdemeanor violations of the Columbus City Code or Ohio Revised Code unless the violation poses an immediate danger to the public (for example, the driver appears to be OVI). If a traffic stop is made outside of OSU property and within the City for an immediate danger to the public, OSU personnel shall process the violation and make any arrests according to law. OSU personnel shall have full authority and responsibility, including, but not limited to, transporting and slating, for such misdemeanor traffic offenses. OSU shall be responsible for any medical care and/or jail expenses. OSU officers also shall not engage in traffic direction outside of OSU property except in emergency situations. If an OSU officer engages in emergency traffic direction off of OSU property, he or she shall relinquish control of the traffic scene upon arrival of Division personnel if requested.
