

|                                  |                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Project Name:             | Easton Police Substation                                                                |
| Project Description:      | Construct a new police substation at 3395 Easton Way, Columbus, Ohio 43219                     |
| Status:                   |                                                                                                |
| Design Start:             | Design Start:                                                                           |
| October 2024                     | October 2024                                                                                   |
| Design Completion:        | Design Completion:                                                                      |
| February 2026                    | February 2026                                                                                  |
| Costs:                    |                                                                                                |
| Design Costs:                    | $1.62M                                                                                        |
| Construction Costs:              | $15M estimate                                                                                 |
| LEED Certification Level: | N/A                                                                                            |
| Contact Information:      |                                                                                                |
| City Project Manager             | John Hanson, 614-645-4822,JJHanson@columbus.gov |
| Design Architect                 | Mull & Weithman Architects                                                                     |
| Construction Contractor          | *Construction award in process.                                                                |
| Project Overview          | May 26, 2026                                                                                   |

