III. Applications

CAC Application # 15-02-01

Project: Fermentor Bike Rack
Location: 171 N. 4th Street (public right-of-way)
Applicant: Dick Stevens, owner, Elevator Brewing Company and Tap Room

Presenters: Dick Stevens, Owner

Applicant has designed a bike rack for placement in the right-of-way in front of his Tap Room at 171 N. 4th Street. The location, building plans and foundation have been approved by the Department of Public Service, which is ready to grant an encroachment easement pending design and placement by the Columbus Art Commission.

Action Requested:

Approval of the design and placement of the Fermentor public art bike rack per Code Chapter 3115.04 (A & B)

CAC Application # 15-02-02

Project: Monarch (On the Wings of Change)
Location: Westgate Park – south side of rain garden
Applicant: Patricia Von Niessen, Event Coordinator, Summer Jam

Presenters: Patricia Von Niessen, Event Coordinator, Summer Jam
Rachel Pace, artist, Steeling Copper Metal Studio

Summer Jam is an annual art and music festival held at Westgate Park. The festival theme for 2015 is the Monarch Butterfly. Summer jam has raised the funds and retained an artist to design a butterfly sculpture to be sited at the south side of the rain garden at Westgate Park. Applicant had originally intended to gift the art to Recreation and Parks (CRPD), but at the request of CRPD, they will retain ownership. Applicant has entered into a Memo of Understanding with CRPD regarding the care and placement of the art. The piece has letters of support from Friends of Westgate Park, the Greater Hilltop Area Commission and Friends of the Hilltop.

Action Requested:

Approval of the design and placement of the On the Wings of Change public art piece per Code Chapter 3115.04

IV. Other Business

Preliminary Project Discussion: TREEmendous (name may change)

Following the success of the Keebler "Little Doors" project in city parks last year, the Recreation and Parks Department (CRPD) is considering another, different way of engaging artists and encouraging the public to visit parks. Director McKnight will be in attendance to brief Art Commissioners on the project.

- Commissioners

- Staff

- Scioto Lounge II – completion of installation (Rich Street Bridge)

- Legislation to encumber funds and enter into contract with artist Terry Allen is scheduled for second reading on March 2nd.
