1. What qualities about each of the following High Street Neighborhoods makes them unique? (CONTINUED)

Top Nightlife Neighborhoods:

Top Community Diversity/Inclusivity Neighborhoods:

Top Appearance Neighborhoods:

Notes

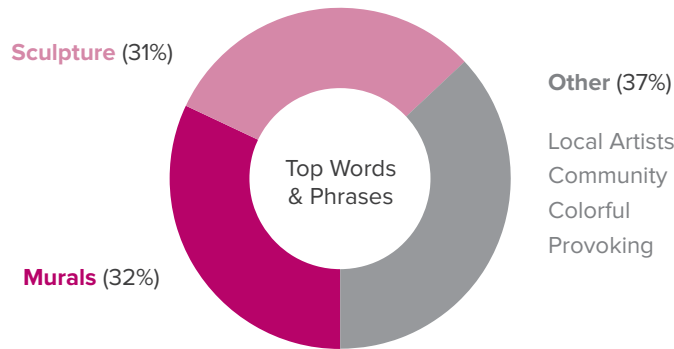

“The Short North is particularly well known for its edgy arts culture and independent image. In recent years, it has strayed more in the direction of bars and chain stores/restaurants at the cost of its quirky vibe.”

“I would like to see 2 Sculptures placed across from each other in the North Market district overlooking I-670 near Goodale Park!”

“It’s difficult to answer with just 3 attributes Short North is arts, shopping, dining, night life, appearance and character. Basically every area has it’s own distinctive architectural and urban character which makes it unique.”

2. What comes to mind when you think of public art?

Notes

“Public art gives character to a space and makes a statement. It shows that a city cares about art. Large or monumental pieces can become true landmarks for a city”

“Art work that expresses the essence of a community. Works that capture the history and culture of the community.”

“Interactive”

“Talking point, Social Anchor”

“the bean in Chicago, the spoon/cherry in Minneapolis, something being interactive and fun, that people are drawn toward and will take pictures telling the world about the art we have here locally”

“Engaging”

Barcelona Parc Guell, Chicago Cloud Gate, Montreal Luminotherapie

“Large scale, bold”

“monumental pieces”

“Unusual, interesting, photo-worthy”

7. How would you best describe the Arts in Columbus?

Top Words and Phrases

Notes

On the rise in some places. The grittiness of the Short North is changing.. I'm hopeful we can salvage some of the history as we improve High Street.

Need to add more iconic pieces

OK but can improve to take Columbus to the next level.

Good, but could be better. More diverse in age and ethnicity.

Needs more diversity and change - same murals in same place for a long time - it's nice to be surprised by new stuff in an unexpected location

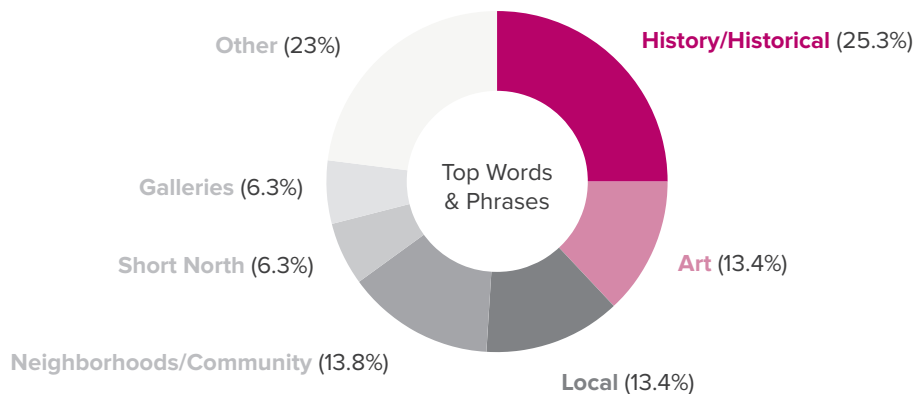

Vibrant, sometimes tucked in unexpected places, which makes it a treasure

I think Columbus art is present but we do not seem to have a sense of pride in it. I wish we would allow more daring pieces that would help communicate our appreciation and respect for edgy art.

Makes me feel at home and welcome

Pervasive and surprising. Something I look forward to seeing every time I am in Columbus

8. Are there qualities about this corridor you would like to see celebrated? If so, what are they?
