PATIRA DATA SCIENCE, LLCpatiradatascience.com

If you're looking for ways to maximize revenue and prepare your business for the future, look to the data mining services offered by Patira. Based in Westerville, Ohio, we offer analytics on shopping trends, discover which products are being sold, and suggest the most effective ways to advertise. Also, we leverage data to foresee which products are likely to sell the best in the future.

After over 10 years of evaluating data, our founder met several entrepreneurs who were unable to analyze their own data. Since they didn't know how to effectively utilize data to reach their businesses' goals, we knew they needed a firm that had the skills to analyze it for them and provide actionable results.

Knowing that United States businesses would experience boosts in productivity from taking advantage of our consulting services, we founded our business. When you work with us, we'll always be on-time and consult with you at each step.

Mission Statement: The mission of Patira is to discover knowledge/insight from today's data-filled world.
