

Columbus Park of Roses Volunteers & Foundation in partnership with Columbus Recreation and Parks and Clintonville Community Fund invite you to Stop and smell the roses

Saturday, June 7, 2014

A day-long event celebrating 12,500 roses in peak bloom, beautiful herb and perennial gardens with outdoor art and music

Columbus Park of Roses, 3923 N. High Street, in Whetstone Park

Free, open to the public, handicap accessible

For information: 614-645-3350 or 614-645-3391 email: rosefoundation@parkofroses.org

In the Gardens, 10:00 am—6:00 pm:

- Experience the color and fragrance of 466 varieties of roses in full bloom as you stroll through 13 acres of garden beds, trellises and arbors
- Consult with rosarians and horticulturists to answer your questions on the selection, planting and care of roses, perennials and herbs
- Watch outdoor oil and watercolor artists from Central Ohio Plein Air, Worthington Area Art League and other visiting artists painting the beauty of the gardens
- Columbus Garden Railway Society garden train exhibit
- Budding Artists children's art activity
- Beverages, sandwiches, kid-friendly meals and pastries available for purchase from Mozart's
- Enjoy music in the gardens throughout the day:

10:00-4:00 Dave Bott, piano	1:00-4:00 Air on Strings, flute and guitar
10:00-1:00 Robert Grossman, dulcimer	2:00-3:30 Buckeye State Harmonica Band
10:00-1:00 Ray Pauken, banjo	4:00-6:00 John McCullough, bagpipes
12:00-2:00 Capitol City Barbershop, chorus	4:00-6:00 Seefari Caribbean Jazz
12:00-6:00 Mark Camden, Native American flute

In the Shelter House, 1:00 pm—5:00 pm

- Columbus Rose Club annual rose show with closed competitive judging ending at 1:00 pm; exhibition open to the public after 1:00 pm

www.parkofroses.org

CLINTONVILLE
COMMUNITY FUND

www.clintonville.org

THE CITY OF
COLUMBUS
MICHAEL B. COLEMAN, MAYOR

RECREATION AND PARKS
DEPARTMENT

parks.columbus.gov

www.wjni.com

www.experienceclintonville.com

www.oaklandnursery.com