Cultural Arts Center Exhibits Multi-Media “Along the Shore”

The Columbus Recreation and Parks Department’s Cultural Arts Center (CAC) is presenting local artist Deb Baillieul’s multi-media exhibit, “Along the Shore” on the third floor Loft Gallery through July 31. There will be an artist's reception on Thursday, July 24 from 11 am - 1:30 pm at the CAC located at 139 W. Main St.

“Deb is one of our most accomplished and versatile students,” said Geoffrey Martin, Arts Administrator of the Cultural Arts Center. “Her work is innovative and challenging.”

Baillieul said that, “‘Along the Shore’ is a collection of abstract art quilts and mixed media on paper and canvas relating to water: coastlines, rivers, ravines, seascapes, and the use and lack of water. I create textural surfaces using acrylic paints and inks, watercolors, rice papers, fibers, seashells, buttons, beads and other found objects. I re-purpose wool and silk clothing, creating designs rich with color, texture, line and shape.”

The Cultural Arts Center is one of Columbus’ premier visual arts facilities providing exceptional art exhibitions and services to central Ohio for 35 years including art classes, workshops, lectures, tours, special events, a gift shop, and rental space.
